综合方法

This nation is building up a harmonious society. If we don't do something to harmonize the situation by achieving common welfare for all the people, how can we accomplish that noble goal? Just as a famous man put it, "If we can not help the many who are poor, then we can not save the few who are rich." Effective measures need to be taken to help the poor so that we can work towards a harmonious nation where the rich are just and the poor secure.
